Many believed the world changed after 9/11.

9/11 refers to a series of four coordinated suicide attacks upon the United States in New York City and the Washington, D.C. areas on the 11th September, 2001. On that Tuesday morning, 19 terrorists from the Islamist militant group al-Qaeda hijacked four passenger jets. The hijackers intentionally flew two of those planes, American Airlines Flight 11 and United Airlines Flight 175, into the North and South towers of the World Trade Center complex in New York City; both towers collapsed within two hours. The hijackers also intentionally crashed American Airlines Flight 77 into the Pentagon in Arlington, Virginia, and intended to pilot the fourth hijacked jet, United Airlines Flight 93, into the United States Capitol Building in Washington, D.C.; however, the plane crashed into a field near Shanksville, Pennsylvania, after its passengers attempted to take control of the jet from the hijackers. Nearly 3,000 people died in the attacks, including all 227 civilians and 19 hijackers aboard the four planes.

Tuesday, this week was the 11th of September 2012 and the 11th anniversary of 9/11.

Both dates (11 09 2001 and with weeks 11 09 2012), as well as the 11 years in between are dominated by the master number 11. The Twin Towers themselves can also be symbolic of this master number.

11 Master energy represents changing the way people think one to many, it is about changing the world spiritually, by changing the way people think. The shape of the 11 represents a channel of special awareness, new wisdoms and new ways of thinking coming through on the 2 of emotion (1 + 1 = 2). These new wisdoms and thinking are beyond intellect. Master energy can also mean exuding a confidence and charisma that you may not feel inside.

When both dates are reduced downwards there are 2 sets of 11 master numbers in both dates (the 11 day reduces to 2 and $2+9 = 11$). There is 11/ 2 and 29/ 11/ 2 from the left hand side of both dates and this represents the starting point for both dates, what you come in with. 29/ 11/ 2 represents the birth of light, it is about inspiring others to think in new ways, bit by bit.

Both dates also have the gift of great breadth of vision and great generosity. The first goal that comes from both dates (20/ 2) is about working in subtle ways to bring about peace. It should be noted however that being the peace maker can mean you are in the middle of a conflict zone, until you find the peace yourself.

With both dates there is a great deal of frustration and scepticism. There is also a great deal of emotion and a great deal going on in people's heads that cannot be put into words. There may be difficulty focussing on the present and great emotional control and discipline may be required in order to move forward.

With both dates there can be great inflexibility and approaching situations with minds made up. There can be very restricted point of view and leadership that can be so single minded, that it blocks alternative possibilities for growth.

In terms of numerology, 11th of September represent a day when dramatic decisions may be forced upon you. On this day it is important to understand what makes others act the way they do.

The mission that comes from the date 11 September 2011 is a 5 which represents embracing change with new ways of thinking. The challenge that comes from this date (21/ 3), represents communicating new ideas, possibly with a great deal of impatience and a sense of urgency.

From this date there is a great deal of planning, emotional control and physical actions that result in co-operative ventures to bring back order and governance.

The sum of the lessons from this date (25/ 7) represents a birth of consciousness, this is a very sensitive number, about learning from life rather than books, about being in new territory and learning from what is happening around you.

Moving forward what has changed on this week's anniversary: -

With 11th September 2012, there is much greater emphasis on learning from what has happened and finding the peace inside. Whereas the mission was to embrace change, the challenge now is to find freedom within limitations and to communicate more effectively. It may be a time now when true feelings can be expressed, a time to see the much bigger picture.

A time to possibly be more flexible, without compromising our beliefs.
