

Numerology for 11/ 12/ 2013

Intense energies at work today and you may feel pulled in different directions – up and down with emotion and also trying to balance your masculine and feminine sides (12/ 3). You may not be able to express all that you want to and may hear yourself say things and think ‘where did that come from ?’ Try not to push yourself too hard, try to relax and go with the flow. If things aren’t going according to plan, try to go with the flow and stay positive, remember laughter keeps you healthy. There is the potential to inspire yourself and others, as long as you do not focus on fear of failure and rejection.
